Grand Master Sun Han Xiang Lily is 8th Duan Professor of Wushu and Tai Chi at Wuhan University in China, holding a Bachelor Degree in Chinese Martial Arts and credentials as an internationally recognised SanShou judge. While she is proficient in numerous weapons, the straight taichi sword was her short weapon of choice when winning a National Championship in China, having studied under Professor Jiang Bei Long (currently the highest ranked master in China). She has been awarded "Most Successful Coach" Awards at multiple and consecutive events, and has coached both Tai Chi and Wushu students to win Gold medals in both national and international competitions. We know that you will benefit enormously from her warm, generous and exceptional teaching skills.
